Program Name: Medical Assisting - Administration

Credential Level: Associate

CIP: 51.0710

This program has not passed standards established by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). The Department based these standards on the amounts of student borrow for enrollment in this program and their reported earnings. If in the future the program does not pass the standards, students who are then enrolled may not be able to use federal student grants or loans to pay for the program, and may have to find other ways, such as private loans, to pay for the program.
